

Tour No 4

Olympia

Have a big breakfast because the day is full! Today we will depart early to Olympia, the birthplace of the Olympic Games! Enjoy the scenery along the highway to Patras before reaching Olympia! The archaeological site of Olympia is one that every visitor to this area must visit. You can experience, first hand, how the games would have been all those years ago! There are many buildings still remaining, such as the Prytaneion, where the winners of the Games were honored, the Philippeion, the Heraion, and other buildings and temples. Visit the temple of Olympian Zeus and explore the museum, which is one of the richest and most important museums in Greece. On your way back to the hotel, you will have the chance to admire a new landscape through Arcadia mountains: This route provides some of the most beautiful landscapes to be found anywhere in Greece. Enjoy this stunning region that is characterised by mountains, high peaks, forests and flourishing vegetation. Back to the hotel full of great memories!
